TRAINING WORKSHOP

Two Day Training Workshop

Gestalt Sand Therapy Process with Adolescents

The adolescent brings his world to the therapy situation and we, as therapists need to collaboratively, with our adolescent clients, create a framework of meaning which supports the process and purpose of therapy. The guiding principle of this collaborative construction is the client's meaning-making, which promotes discovery of capability, agency, personal power and connectedness with the interpersonal world.

Gestalt Sand Therapy Process is a unique approach to working with adolescents, developed by Bronagh Starrs. The sandworld can bring healing and insight, offering a dynamic mode of relating which enriches contact process between aspects of self-experience which are often compartmentalised in the adolescent's developing awareness. The adolescent's lifespace and contact boundary development become visible, tangible and three-dimensional in the sand. This dynamic way of working also creates additional richness and depth to therapeutic contact.

During the two days, we will explore theoretical, clinical and practical aspects of sand therapy process with adolescents including:

- An Overview of Jungian Sandplay Theory
- An introduction to Gestalt Sand Therapy Process
- Initiating sand therapy process with adolescent clients
- Gaining practical experience of creating & facilitating sand work
- Exploring the healing & transformative potential of sand therapy
- Trauma in the sand: silent expression of the unspeakable
- Understanding the richness of symbolic representation for the adolescent
